Quotable Value Ltd and RP Data Ltd Announce Joint Venture

Quotable Value Limited and RP Data Limited (ASX:RPX) today announced a joint venture, which will enable them to develop and deliver advanced property information solutions to their clients.

In announcing the joint venture, QV chief executive Bill Osborne emphasised the current global demand for more advanced financial and property information.

“The property and banking market will continue to change in the global internet economy and it is important that we are able to meet the changing needs of our customers.”

“The combination of both firms expertise provides leading edge technology solutions that surpass anything currently available in the New Zealand market.”

RP Data chief executive Graham Mirabito said the company was excited to have the opportunity to work with QV Limited.

“RP Data has been providing comprehensive information solutions to the Australian and New Zealand property industry since 1991. QV is the leading valuation and online property information provider in New Zealand and we see the joint venture, which includes the benefit of RP’s partner First American CoreLogic, as delivering benefit to all our customers”
